

Slides

Description

The Slides class represents the set of slides in a PowerPoint presentation. This object is used to manage (add, copy, remove, etc.) the slides in the presentation To return a Slides object, use Presentation.Slides.

C#

```
[DefaultMember("Item")]
public sealed class Slides : System.Collections.Generic.IEnumerable<Slide>
```

vb.net

```
<DefaultMember("Item")> _
Public NotInheritable Class Slides
    Implements System.Collections.Generic.IEnumerable(Of Slide)
```

Properties

Name	Description
Count	Returns the number of worksheets in the workbook.

Indexers

Name	Description
Item(Int)	Returns the slide at the specified position. This property is an indexer for the Slides class.

Methods

Name	Description
CopySlide(Slide, Int)	Copies a slide in the presentation to another position in the same presentation.
Delete(Int)	Deletes a slide from the presentation.
GetEnumerator()	Returns an IEnumerator for the individual Slides in a Slides object