

HTMLToWord.InsertHTML

Overload	Description
<code>InsertHTML(String, Document)</code>	Processes the XHTML string and inserts it at the end of the specified Word document as formatted text using the document's Normal style as the default font. Returns the last Element inserted into the document.
<code>InsertHTML(String, Document, Element)</code>	Processes the XHTML string and inserts it into the specified Word document as formatted text after the given <code>WordWriter Element</code> using the document's Normal style as the default font. Returns the last Element inserted into the document.
<code>InsertHTML(String, Document, NamedStyle, Element)</code>	Processes the XHTML string and inserts it into the specified Word document as formatted text after the given <code>WordWriter Element</code> using the given <code>NamedStyle</code> . Returns the last Element inserted into the document.